LEGAL EXPERIENCE

COMMUNITY LEGAL AID / CENTRAL WEST JUSTICE CENTER, Worcester, MA 2013 –2015
Staff Attorney. Directed the day-to-day operations of the organization’s medical-legal partnerships with area community health centers and hospitals.

- Provided holistic legal services to address the underlying social and environmental causes of poor health in low-income communities. Areas of practice included health care and other public benefits, fair housing rights, homelessness prevention, immigration, education, and family law.
- Trained medical providers and community advocates on the laws and programs that safeguard health and welfare.
- Advocated for laws and policies that promote the health of vulnerable populations.

ROPES & GRAY LLP, Boston, MA

2010 - 2013

Associate. Diverse practice focused on complex business litigation. Researched and wrote legal memoranda, pleadings, motion papers, and briefs. Participated in all stages of discovery, including reviewing documents, preparing expert reports, managing expert discovery, and preparing materials and witnesses for depositions. Maintained a robust pro bono practice, including:

- Serving as the Immigration Team Leader for the firm’s medical-legal partnership and representing numerous applicants for humanitarian immigration benefits.
- Supervising and advising associates and law students in immigration matters, including asylum, VAWA, and family-based petitions; student visa extensions; adjustments of status; and naturalizations. Interviewed potential clients and identified legal issues relating to housing, education, income supports, family, and immigration.

ASYLUM ACCESS ECUADOR, Quito, Ecuador

2009 - 2010

Legal Advocate. Represented more than 50 asylum applicants in Ecuador, and advocated for clients’ rights relating to employment, education, and public safety.

POLITICAL ASYLUM/IMMIGRATION REPRESENTATION PROJECT, Boston, MA

2008 - 2009
