Appendix D

Selected Achievements as Director, Center for Intellectual Property, Information and Privacy Law, UIC Law (2015 – June 30, 2022)

- ACADEMIC AFFAIRS
- Organizing Juris Doctor (JD) programs in intellectual property (IP) law and technology and privacy law, including adjunct hiring, course assignments, evaluations, student communication, and publicity.
 - Convening advanced law degrees for those with legal (Master of Law, LL.M) and non-legal backgrounds (Master of Jurisprudence, MJ) in IP law and technology and privacy law, including fully online asynchronous degrees.
 - Benchmarking IP program against top national programs looking at courses, adjuncts, events, and outcomes.
- PROGRAMMING AND PUBLICITY
- Securing National Jurist magazine’s highest grade of A+ for seven years since 2016 for our IP curricular offerings. US News consistently ranked UIC Law’s IP program as one of the best in the Midwest throughout my tenure as Director.
 - Pioneering IP executive courses for practitioners to learn alongside law students from nationally recognized instructors.
 - Establishing the IP Center as a hub for newsmakers in IP, technology, privacy, and allied fields to meet, debate, and in doing so, provide students with access to education and employment opportunities rarely available elsewhere.
 - Designing and implementing virtual and hybrid programming for IP Center events involving professionals from all sectors and students.
 - Securing International Association of Privacy Professionals (IAPP) recognition for UIC Law’s privacy and technology program, one of thirty-six institutions worldwide.
- FUNDRAISING, FINANCES, AND CAPACITY BUILDING
- Overseeing a program in IP, technology and privacy law, generating an annual revenue of 1.8 million dollars.
 - Raising over half a million dollars from sponsorships, donations, and individual giving for the IP Center since 2016.
 - Designing an IP Law Fellowship as a launchpad for law graduates interested in learning administrative aspects of higher education while interacting with stakeholders from government, practice, academia, civil society organizations, and other industry leaders. The IP Center is fully responsible for funding the Fellows’ salaries, approximately $300,000 over four years.
- PARTNERSHIPS
- Establishing an annual judicial internship program at the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit for law students to gain experiential learning at the highest patent appeals court in the nation.
 - Collaborating on a $2.5 million National Institutes of Health grant application for “Collaboratory for Health Equity, Engaging Technology for Aging in the Home (CHEETAH)” with the UIC Institute for Health Research and Policy and the UIC Electrical and Computer Engineering (Not submitted due to collaborators’ deadline constraints).⁴¹

⁴¹ The project focuses on developing technology to help older people and their caregivers as they support aging in place and coping with cognitive and physical decline.

- Collaborating on a $0.5 million National Science Foundation grant applicant with UIC Electrical and Computer Engineering on hardware security and developing techniques to detect and protect against counterfeiting (Not submitted due to collaborator's assessment of success).
