National Anthem

by Francis Scott Key

O say, can you see, by the dawn's early light,
What so proudly we hailed at the twilight's last gleaming;
Whose broad stripes and bright stars, thro' the perilous fight,
O'er the ramparts we watched, were so gallantly streaming?
And the rockets' red glare, the bombs bursting in air
Gave proof thro' the night that our flag was still there.
O say, does that Star-Spangled Banner yet wave
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave!

Alma Mater

by Fred Lewis Pattee

For the glory of old State,
For her founders, strong and great,
For the future that we wait,
Raise the song, raise the song,

Sing our love and loyalty,
Sing our hopes that, bright and free,
Rest, O Mother dear, with thee.
All with thee, all with thee.

When we stood at childhood's gate,
Shapeless in the hands of fate,
Thou didst mold us, dear old State,
Dear old State, dear old State.

May no act of ours bring shame
To one heart that loves thy name,
May our lives but swell thy fame,
Dear old State, dear old State!

PennState
Dickinson Law

To Our Guests

We welcome you to the commencement exercises for Penn State Dickinson Law J.D. and LL.M. candidates.

Commencement, the solemn but joyful culmination and recognition of the graduates' years of study, is an important occasion to the University, its faculty, staff, and students. All guests and participants are requested to avoid unnecessary conversation or moving about during the exercises.

Only authorized press and University photographers are permitted on the floor to take pictures once the exercises are in progress.

When the processional party enters at the beginning of the ceremony, the audience rises. They remain standing until all members of the official party have taken their places on the stage and during the national anthem.

Applause should be withheld during the presentation of the individual candidates; however, they may be applauded after all candidates have been recognized.

The audience is requested to remain seated during the recessional.

Eisenhower Auditorium

A FIRST AID STATION is located at Audience Services in the Lobby.

RESTROOMS are located on the Lounge, Grand Tier, and Balcony Levels.

LOST AND FOUND articles will be taken to the Events Office located in the basement (Room B40).

PENN STATE encourages persons with disabilities to participate in its programs and activities. If you anticipate needing any type of accommodation or have questions about the physical access provided, please contact Eisenhower Auditorium at 814-863-0255.

NOTICE: The possession or consumption of alcoholic beverages in any indoor commencement facility is prohibited. Your admission to any of these facilities is conditional upon compliance with the above. The University reserves the right to refuse admission to, or remove, any person who violates this prohibition.

Commencement Speaker

Christie B. Tillapaugh

President and CEO, Dentons, Cohen & Grigsby

Christie B. Tillapaugh is the President and CEO of Dentons Cohen & Grigsby. She is a Shareholder and serves as Chair of the Dentons Cohen & Grigsby Nonprofit and Tax-Exempt Organizations Group and is a member of the Dentons United States Regional Management Committee and Board of Directors.

Tillapaugh has more than twenty years of experience serving as outside general counsel and providing corporate governance and strategic transaction-related counseling for numerous organizations, including both tax-exempt and for-profit companies. She is recognized as a leading corporate lawyer in the region's nonprofit sector, having worked on many transformative projects and transactions. Christie has represented a wide array of nonprofit organizations, including those that are community based, cultural and arts based, and private foundations. In addition to being a trusted advisor to clients, Tillapaugh has played an instrumental role in some of the Firm's most consequential business decisions, serving on various management committees, including the Compensation Committee and Oversight and Executive Committee. She previously spearheaded the Firm's Associates Committee, chaired both the Talent Management and Recruiting and Hiring Committees, and previously served on the Shareholders Council and the Diversity and Inclusion Planning Committee.

Tillapaugh regularly provides guidance to senior management and boards of directors on a variety of corporate, transactional and corporate governance-related issues. She has counseled public, private and nonprofit clients in a number of transactions, including mergers and acquisitions, divestitures, reorganizations, and strategic collaborations and partnerships. Her knowledge of the nonprofit industry, combined with her deal experience, allows her to assist clients when making decisions and structuring a broad range of strategic combinations to achieve their mission. She regularly assists clients when evaluating potential strategic partners and negotiating and seeking attorneys' general approval on behalf of her clients. Tillapaugh also regularly assists her clients with governance-related considerations, both in the context of a potential deal, and in the ordinary course. Her historical experience working with public companies, institutional lenders and corporate borrowers, coupled with her familiarity of compliance and regulatory matters, gives her a unique advantage in advising clients in all aspects of their transactional strategies and needs.

Prior to joining Dentons Cohen & Grigsby, Tillapaugh served as in-house counsel at Tollgrade Communications, Inc., a telecommunications company then-listed with NASDAQ, from 2006-2008. She began her legal career as an associate in the corporate and securities group at Reed Smith in Pittsburgh from 2002-2006.

Tillapaugh is a 2002 graduate of Penn State Dickinson Law.

The University is committed to equal access to programs, facilities, admission, and employment for all persons. It is the policy of the University to maintain an environment free of harassment and free of discrimination against any person because of age, race, color, ancestry, national origin, religion, creed, service in the uniformed services (as defined in state and federal law), veteran status, sex, sexual orientation, marital or family status, pregnancy, pregnancy-related conditions, physical or mental disability, gender, perceived gender, gender identity, genetic information, or political ideas. Discriminatory conduct and harassment, as well as sexual misconduct and relationship violence, violates the dignity of individuals, impedes the realization of the University's educational mission, and will not be tolerated. Direct all inquiries regarding nondiscrimination policy to the Office of Equal Opportunity and Access, The Pennsylvania State University, 328 Boucke Building, University Park, PA 16802-5901; Email: oeoa@psu.edu; Tel: 814-863-0471.
